Professional Summary

Motivated Junior Frontend Developer with strong fundamentals in React and TypeScript, currently expanding my expertise with Vue.js. Completed an intensive 12-month bootcamp with hands-on experience in building complex projects, including a full-featured e-commerce demo (Briaton Shop) and a data-driven movie discovery app.

Passionate about creating intuitive user interfaces and eager to apply my fast learning ability to contribute to a high-performing, product-driven engineering team.
